The 3rd Annual Neck Ultrasound & FNA Practicum, hosted by the New Jersey Association of Endocrinologists (NJAE), will provide the attendee with a review of the core topics and skills needed to perform diagnostic neck ultrasound and fine needle aspiration (FNA) in daily practice. There will be both didactic lectures and case-based discussion with expert faculty, followed by a hands-on lab. The target audience for this course are endocrinologists, surgeons, residents and fellows in training who would like to improve their ultrasound and FNA skills and all those planning to incorporate ultrasound and FNA into their practice in the future.

This activity has been approved for AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™.

Faculty:

Mark Lupo, MD, ECNU - Thyroid & Endocrine Center of Florida, Sarasota, FL.
Debbie Margulies, MD, FACE, ECNU - Summit Health, Morristown, NJ
Alex Tessnow, MD, MBA, ECNU - UT Southwestern, Dallas TX
